

High quality child care looks like

CONVERSATION.

She may not be able to speak yet, but she knows lots of words. She has good caregivers.

They look at her when they talk to her. When she tries to communicate, they answer her. Her early experiences are full of hugging, holding and singing. She loves it when they sing and clap their hands together.

Look for quality caregivers that are ready to have a conversation with your baby.

Visit our website to find high quality child care.

Division of Child Care and Early Childhood Education

better beginnings

EVERY CHILD DESERVES OUR BEST

www.ARBetterBeginnings.com

1-800-445-3316

Learn more at bit.ly/citiconversation